Che cos'è la luce?

Una vibrazione di energia che diventa percezione.

Una scintilla del pensiero che illumina la materia.

Un fenomeno fisico, tecnologico, culturale.

What is light?

A vibration of energy that becomes perception.

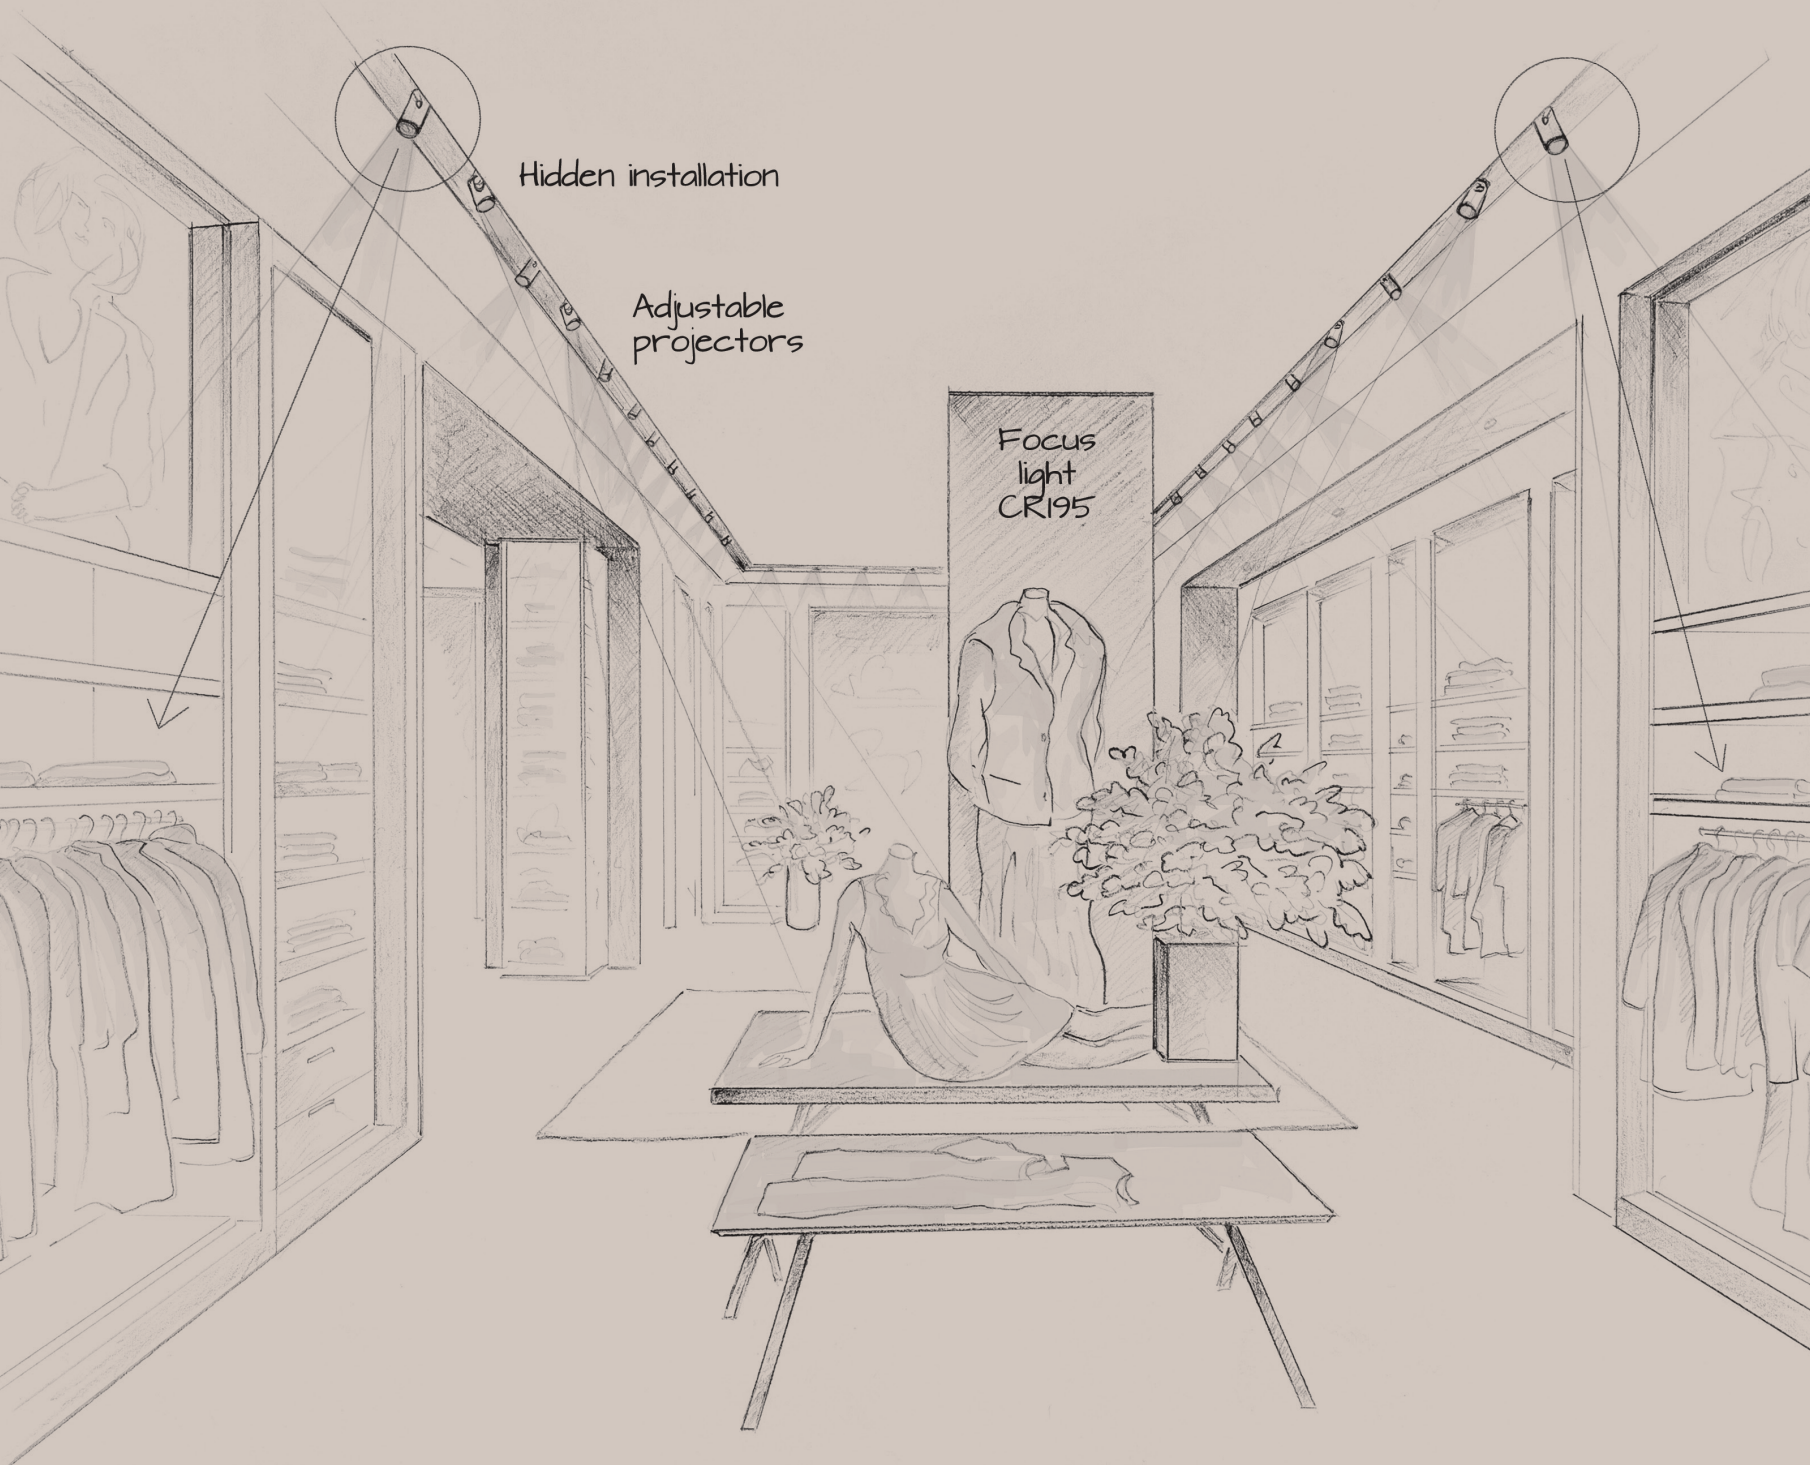

A sparkle in your mindset that enlightens the matter.

A physical, technological and cultural phenomenon.

Percepiamo le differenze attraverso il colore e le forme che lo contengono. I nostri desideri dialogano con un interlocutore silenzioso che ascolta le scelte prima che queste vengano alla luce.

Differences can be spotted through colours and shapes. Our desires communicate with a silent speaker, who senses the choices before they come to light.

È quando troviamo sicurezza che un luogo esprime al meglio il senso di accoglienza.

Come un abbraccio, la luce è in grado di farci sentire a casa in qualsiasi luogo ci troviamo, in qualsiasi momento, lasciando spazio alla serenità della notte.

It is when we feel comfortable that a place best expresses the sense of welcome. Like a hug, light can make us feel at home anywhere, at any time, giving space to the calm of the night.

C'è un sottile spazio che separa l'uomo dal non compreso.

Quel confine si concretizza nel materiale più prezioso e arduo da lavorare.

È nella complessità di cui è composto che l'uomo ha capito che non può più vivere senza.

There's a slight space that separates Man from the Unknown.

That boundry materializes in the most precious and hard-to-work matter.

In the complexity of its nature, Man figures he cannot live without it.

Sono i posti dove trascorriamo le nostre giornate, i luoghi dove le idee si traducono in realtà, gli spazi dove le nuove generazioni crescono, si formano e vengono stimulate.

Non è un caso, quindi, che la luce diventi un investimento sul nostro vivere, sul nostro futuro.

Places where we spend our daily life; where ideas are converted into reality; spaces where new generations grow up, develop and get stimulated. It is not a coincidence that light becomes an investment in our lives, and our future.

Spesso i paesaggi rivelano la loro natura più intima all'imbrunire.

*Nuove linee e nuovi punti non li rendono
diversi, li avvicinano più ai nostri occhi, alle nostre anime.*

*Landscapes often reveal their intimate

New lines and spots don't make them different, they get them closer to our eyes, to our souls.

*Qual è il ruolo della luce nelle nostre vite?
Da sempre, quando realizziamo il nostro ambiente ideale, ne disegniamo dapprima
i confini per poi immaginarlo vissuto dalle persone a noi più care, avvolte dalla miglior luce.*

*What's the role of light in our lives?
When designing our ideal space, we first outline the boundaries, then picture the image of our beloved wrapped in a perfect light.*
